

Camper Cait & Jerry Berry

Singer-songwriter-fiddle player extraordinaire Caitlin Evanson (after embarking on tours with Ringo Starr, Taylor Swift and Shakira - to name a few) teams up with singer-songwriter extraordinaire Jerry Vandiver (after writing songs for Tim McGraw, The Oak Ridge Boys and Lonestar - to name a few) to encourage young and old alike to put down their electronic devices and savor everything the outdoors has to offer.

Camper Cait and Jerry Berry embrace their passion for all things outdoors and all things fun in music hoping to ignite that same passion in others with all original songs on their debut CD "Let's Go Outside!"

But wait! There's more! Cait and Jerry are joined by children all over the United States in singing, clapping and laughing along for a unique combination of voices and instruments. Recommended ages 3 to 103.

“Camper Cait & Jerry Berry’s CD is full of delightful music that speaks to the joy and fun to be found in the great outdoors. Done in Jerry and Caitlin’s usual wonderful style, of course.” - Annie Possis, producer of The Roadhouse, WTIP North Shore Community Radio, Grand Marais, MN

“We are proud to have Camper Cait and Jerry Berry as part of our Quiet Adventures Symposium family. Their music makes us laugh and brings us to tears. And it inspires young and old to get out and experience the beauty and wonder of the outdoors.” - Linda and Gary De Kock, Quiet Adventures Symposium, E. Lansing, MI

“It wouldn’t be Canoeopia without Jerry and the One Match Band, and with the delightful addition of Camper Cait, the Camper Cait and Jerry Berry project introduces a younger audience to the outdoors through their music in a light-hearted way that parents will love too.” -Darren Bush – Rutabaga Paddlesports and Canoeopia, Madison, WI
